

1 that to do this would to some extent weaken the proposal
2 which they would like to see go forward. I would say
3 that I agree with what has been said here about the con-
4 troversy, and I would suggest that when this matter gets 5 to the Commission, it is a brand new ballgame, I mean
6 to the Convention.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: I would like to comment and re-
8 mind the Commission that at the very outset of our work, 9 we recognized the fact that Mr. Case just refers to, and 10 that is we are not the Convention, we are the Commission,
11 and we are drafting the proposals for the consideration
12 of the Convention which said that in any area where there
13 was substantial controversy, we would submit alternate 14 proposals.

15 In many cases we would submit them with our 16 recommendation. I point out to you our failure to submit 17 an alternate here means that the Convention, if it wants 18 that alternate, would have the task of drafting it, and we 19 would be deprived of the opportunity of submitting a proper 20 draft.

21 MR. SAYRE: Mr. Chairman, on that point, I would
